4-Day Guilin & Yangshuo In-Depth Private Tour

Guilin → Li River → Yangshuo → Guilin

Follow the Li River into Yangshuo, then spend a full unhurried day among the Yulong River, Ten-Mile Gallery and village landscapes. A relaxed four-day private route for families and travelers who enjoy time to walk, photograph and pause.

Airport or station times, hotel locations, river conditions and reservations shape the final plan. This route does not include Longji Rice Terraces.

3 nights are planned. Hotel accommodation, vehicle, guiding language, meals, tickets and price are included only as stated in your written quotation.

Private reference from NT$22,800 per person. Final services and price are confirmed individually.

1

Guilin

Arrival, transfer & an easy city introduction

Sun and Moon Pagodas illuminated at night on Shanhu Lake in Guilin

Meet your driver or reception contact at Guilin airport or the agreed railway station and transfer to your hotel. If your arrival allows, choose a gentle city stop such as Elephant Trunk Hill, East-West Lane, Zhengyang pedestrian street or the Two Rivers and Four Lakes area. Keep time to settle in and rest.

Arrival-day sightseeing is flexible rather than a promise to visit every stop. With a late flight or train, plan the transfer and rest only. Tickets and any lake cruise are confirmed separately.

Proposed overnight: Guilin - 1 night, hotel to be confirmed

2

Guilin → Li River → Yangshuo

Li River scenery & a relaxed Yangshuo evening

Misty karst peaks reflected in a river near Guilin

Plan a Li River cruise or a suitable scenic river-section experience to see the region’s limestone peaks and riverside landscapes. Continue to Yangshuo and settle in. Choose an easy West Street stroll, a countryside viewpoint, a café break or free time as the afternoon and evening allow.

The cruise route, boarding point and class are confirmed in your proposal. Weather, water levels and operations may lead to a raft or land-based viewpoint alternative. The river boat may be a shared scheduled service within your private ground itinerary.

Proposed overnight: Yangshuo - first of 2 nights, hotel to be confirmed

3

Yangshuo · Yulong River · Ten-Mile Gallery

A full day for the river, villages & countryside

Bamboo rafts floating along the river in Yangshuo with karst mountain scenery

Spend an unhurried day around the Yulong River, Ten-Mile Gallery and Yangshuo's villages. Choose light walking, cycling, photography stops or private scenic drives to suit your party. Leave space for breaks and to enjoy the fields, river views and karst peaks rather than trying to tick off every attraction.

Bamboo rafting can be discussed as an optional activity; it depends on conditions and operating requirements. The activity choice, entrance fees and meals are confirmed in the final written plan. Walking or scenic drives can replace cycling.

Proposed overnight: Yangshuo - second night, hotel to be confirmed

4

Yangshuo / Guilin · Departure

A flexible final morning & onward transfer

Karst peaks reflected in a calm river with bamboo rafts in Guilin

Use the time before your departure for an easy walk, souvenir shopping, a café break or a short practical city stop in Yangshuo or Guilin. Transfer to the agreed Guilin airport or railway station with time for your onward journey. An early departure can be a direct transfer without sightseeing.

Share the exact departure station and time before confirming the plan. Travel back from Yangshuo takes part of this day; the final morning is shaped around the transfer rather than adding a Longji detour.

Proposed overnight: No overnight stay - departure

Clear arrangements, before you book

To agree in your quotation

- Local itinerary planning and on-trip coordination as agreed.

- Private ground transport and arrival/departure transfers when listed in your quotation.

- A Chinese-speaking guide or driver-guide as agreed; other guide languages are quoted separately.

- Assistance arranging attraction tickets, the Li River cruise or bamboo rafting; admission and activity costs are included only when itemized.

- Daily route, timing and local dining suggestions.

Separately priced or excluded

- Flights or trains to and from Guilin, and travel documents.

- Hotel accommodation unless expressly included in the quotation.

- Meals, drinks, personal expenses, tips and any unlisted activities.

- Travel insurance, single-room supplements and special optional experiences.

- Extra costs caused by weather, river conditions, traffic or changes to the confirmed plan.

The final written proposal is the complete service list. Availability and any applicable local charges are confirmed before booking.

A few useful answers

How does this differ from the four-day Longji tour?

This route gives Yangshuo a full countryside day and a flexible departure morning. It does not visit Longji Rice Terraces. Choose the separate Guilin, Yangshuo & Longji tour if the terraces are a priority.

Is a Li River cruise always used?

A cruise or a suitable scenic river section is planned for Day 2. Water levels, weather and operations may require a bamboo raft or land-based viewpoint alternative. Your proposal confirms the actual route and any price difference.

Is bamboo rafting on the Yulong River guaranteed?

No. Rafting is optional and subject to river conditions, operating rules and participant eligibility. Walking, cycling or private scenic drives are alternatives; activity costs are confirmed separately.

Where are the three overnight stays?

The suggested plan uses one night in Guilin and two in Yangshuo. Accommodation is not automatically included. Hotel names, room types and any changes to the overnight pattern are confirmed in your proposal.

A few useful answers

Can we keep the first or last day short?

Yes. A late arrival can be transfer and rest only, and an early departure can be a direct transfer. Share your flight or train times before confirming the sightseeing plan.

Is an English-speaking guide included?

A Chinese-speaking guide or driver-guide can be arranged according to the agreed plan. English or another guide language can be requested and quoted separately; it is not automatically included.

What is the reference price?

Private customization starts from NT$22,800 per person. This is a reference starting price, not a fixed bookable package. Dates, travelers, hotels, vehicle, guide language, cruise or raft choice and reservations determine the final written quotation.

Are meals and hotels included?

Only services itemized in your final quotation are included. Hotels, meals, cruise class, tickets and optional activities should be confirmed before payment. No specific hotel star rating or meal count is promised by this reference route.

Let’s make it your journey.
