6-Day Private Guizhou Tour with Fanjing Mountain

Guiyang → Libo → Xijiang → Zhenyuan → Fanjing Mountain → Huangguoshu → Guiyang

Turquoise rivers, Miao village lanes, an ancient riverside town and a dramatic mountain summit. A six-day starting point for your own private Guizhou journey.

An active route with several long drives. We can simplify the mountain day or add a night for a gentler pace.

5 nights planned. Private vehicle, guiding language, hotels, meals, tickets and price are confirmed in your individual quotation.

A starting point for your own journey, with no fixed public price.

1

Guiyang

Arrive and settle into Guiyang

Meet your arranged driver at Guiyang airport or railway station and transfer to your hotel. Keep the rest of the day free to rest after your journey. If arrival time allows, discuss a gentle city walk or a visit to Qianlingshan Park with your planner.

Arrival-day sightseeing is optional and separately agreed. No fixed meal package is promised.

Overnight: Guiyang

2

Libo → Xijiang

Xiaoqikong’s turquoise water, then a village evening

Leave Guiyang early for Libo, allowing roughly four hours on the road. After a lunch break, explore Xiaoqikong with time for its stone bridge, clear river scenery and forest paths. Use local scenic transport as needed. Continue to Xijiang, a drive of around three hours, and settle into village accommodation. Enjoy the hillside setting and evening lights at your own pace.

This is a long travel day. Walking and stops can be adapted; the optional Mandarin Duck Lake boat is separately priced unless included in your quote.

Overnight: Xijiang Miao Village

3

Xijiang → Zhenyuan → Jiangkou

Miao village life and Zhenyuan’s riverfront

Spend the morning in Xijiang’s lanes and viewpoint area. Discuss a local museum visit, costume experience or long-table lunch if you would like to include one. Continue to Zhenyuan, allowing around two hours for the drive. Walk beside the Wuyang River and explore the old town before continuing toward Jiangkou or Tongren for the night.

Local cultural experiences and performances are arranged only when confirmed. This afternoon includes another road transfer after Zhenyuan.

Overnight: Jiangkou / Tongren

4

Fanjing Mountain → Guiyang

Forest trails and Fanjing Mountain’s summit views

Make Fanjing Mountain the focus of today. Travel to the east entrance, then use the scheduled scenic shuttle and cable car where included in your plan. Explore the mountain paths and Mushroom Rock area according to weather, ticket slots and your walking ability. Summit access requires separate availability and is never guaranteed. Return to Guiyang after the visit.

Combining Jiulong Cave with the mountain can mean a very late return, around 23:00. We recommend prioritizing the mountain; Jiulong Cave is an optional addition. Even without it, the return drive is long. An extra night or a simplified visit is available by quotation.

Overnight: Guiyang

5

Huangguoshu → Anshun

A day among Huangguoshu’s waterfalls

Travel from Guiyang toward Huangguoshu, allowing around two hours. Visit Doupotang, the Tianxing Bridge area and the main waterfall, with the walking route chosen around your pace. Take time for lunch and the waterfall viewpoints. Stay in Anshun to avoid an unnecessary return drive to Guiyang.

The Water Curtain Cave depends on separate reservation, weather and access conditions. Longgong (Dragon Palace) can be discussed as an optional addition; availability and price must be confirmed.

Overnight: Anshun

6

Tianlong Tunbao → Guiyang

Tunbao heritage, then your onward journey

If your departure time allows, visit Tianlong Tunbao for its historic settlement and local cultural heritage. Discuss Tiantai Mountain and Wulong Temple if the walking and timing suit your party. Continue to Guiyang for your agreed airport or railway-station transfer.

Tunbao sightseeing is subject to opening and the final plan; cultural performances are not guaranteed. Choose an afternoon departure only after we confirm the transfer buffer. Earlier departures may require shortening or omitting this visit.

Overnight: No overnight stay

Clear arrangements, before you book

To agree in your quotation

- Private vehicle and driver for the agreed itinerary and airport or station transfers, with the exact service scope stated in the quote.

- Five nights of accommodation in the agreed room category. Final properties, room occupancy and any single-room supplement are confirmed individually.

- Guiding arrangements and preferred language, subject to availability and the quotation.

- Entrance tickets and local scenic transport only where expressly itemized as included.

- Meals and local experiences only where specified in the final confirmation.

Separately priced or excluded

- Flights or trains to and from Guiyang, unless separately quoted.

- Personal expenses, tips and personal travel or accident insurance, unless specifically arranged.

- Optional activities, extra scenic transport and any tickets not listed as included.

- Unconfirmed hotel upgrades, additional nights, extra transfers or itinerary changes.

Your final written quotation confirms every included service; current local charges and availability are reconfirmed before booking.

A few useful answers

Is this a private tour?

Yes. These are suggested private itineraries. You travel with your own party. Vehicle, guiding language, hotels, meals and price are agreed in your individual quotation.

Which hotels and vehicle will we use?

Tell us your room preferences, party size and luggage. We will recommend suitable accommodation and a private vehicle. Website gallery images illustrate possible comfort levels and vehicle types, not confirmed Guizhou properties or guaranteed models. Five nights are planned; all names and room arrangements are confirmed before booking.

Are meals included?

Meal arrangements will be listed in your final confirmation. We do not promise a fixed number of main meals. Tell us about dietary needs in advance, and discuss local dining or a Miao long-table meal with your travel planner.

Are scenic-area shuttles and cable cars included?

The quotation will itemize entrance tickets, required local shuttles, cable cars and optional activities. Do not assume that a main entrance ticket covers every local transport service. Current charges and inclusion status are reconfirmed before booking.

Can we keep walking gentle?

Share mobility needs before planning. Scenic parks involve walking, steps and uneven paths. We can adjust the stops and allow rest time; Fanjing Mountain is substantially more demanding than a gentle village stroll.

A few useful answers

How do arrival and departure transfers work?

Guiyang is the proposed start and finish. Send us your flight or train details before booking so that we can agree the transfer schedule and a realistic departure buffer. Transport tickets to and from Guizhou are separately quoted or self-booked.

Can you guarantee Red Cloud Golden Summit?

No. Entrance admission does not guarantee a summit slot. Red Cloud Golden Summit and other restricted areas depend on separate reservations, capacity, weather and safety conditions. We confirm what is available for your travel dates.

What extra scenic services should I budget for?

Local scenic services can include Fanjing Mountain cable car and shuttle, Jiulong Cave shuttle, Xiaoqikong shuttle, Huangguoshu shuttle, Xijiang transport and Zhenyuan transport, plus some scenic insurance charges. Optional extras include the Huangguoshu escalator and Xiaoqikong boat. We will provide the applicable current charges and identify what your private quote covers.

Can we make this trip less tiring?

Yes. Prioritize Fanjing Mountain instead of adding Jiulong Cave on the same day, reduce walking, or add an extra night near the mountain. An extended itinerary changes the nights, transport and price, so we will quote it separately.

Let’s make it your journey.
