6-Day Yunnan: Kunming, Dali & Lijiang

Kunming → Dali → Lijiang

Erhai lakeside walks, Bai and Naxi old towns, and the mountain scenery of Jade Dragon. A compact private introduction to Yunnan, shaped around your own pace.

Start in Kunming and finish in Lijiang. The mountain visit and transfer mode are chosen before booking; add time if you prefer fewer moves.

5 nights are planned. Hotel accommodation, vehicle, guiding language, meals, tickets and price are included only as stated in your written quotation.

A starting point for your own journey. No fixed public price.

1

Kunming

Arrive in Yunnan and settle in

Lake, boats and waterfront paths at Cuihu Park in Kunming

Meet your arranged driver at Kunming airport or railway station and transfer to your hotel. Keep the first day easy after your journey. If your arrival leaves time, take an independent stroll around Cuihu (Green Lake), the Jinma Biji archways or nearby streets, and try local food at your own pace.

Arrival sightseeing and dining are optional. Send your transport details so we can agree the pickup and any extra stops.

Proposed overnight: Kunming

2

Kunming → Dali

Erhai lakeside time and Dali Old Town

View over a lakeside village and the broad waters of Erhai Lake in Dali, with mountains beyond.

Travel from Kunming to Dali by the high-speed train or private road transfer agreed in your proposal. After arrival, spend time beside Erhai Lake: a lakeside walk, a café stop or a few viewpoints along the lakeside road. Leave the evening free to explore Dali Old Town rather than trying to cover every stop.

The transport mode, rail tickets and station transfers are confirmed separately. Cafés, food and any photo session are paid individually unless itemized.

Proposed overnight: Dali

3

Dali

Xizhou, Bai heritage and the Erhai shore

Lakeside village buildings and mountains beside Erhai Lake in Dali

Explore Xizhou’s old streets and Bai-style houses, then follow a selected section of the Erhai lakeside route. Choose Shuanglang or the Ideal Bang area according to your interests and hotel location. Keep time for village scenery, photos and a relaxed break beside the water.

This is a flexible selection of stops, not a promise to visit every lakeside attraction. Optional photography, cafés and family activities are agreed separately.

Proposed overnight: Dali

4

Dali → Lijiang

Old-town lanes and Naxi culture

Traditional entrance gate to Shuhe Old Town in Lijiang

Continue from Dali to Lijiang. Walk through the old-town lanes, with a look at the exterior of Mufu and Sifang Street, or choose a quieter visit to Shuhe Old Town. Leave time for tea, photographs and the evening atmosphere instead of rushing between every stop.

Old-town stone paving can be uneven. Mufu is an exterior stop in this suggested plan; interior admission must be specifically arranged.

Proposed overnight: Lijiang

5

Lijiang

Jade Dragon Snow Mountain and Blue Moon Valley

Turquoise lake at Blue Moon Valley near Jade Dragon Snow Mountain

Make Jade Dragon Snow Mountain the focus of the day. Choose one suitable mountain route-Glacier Park, Yunshanping or Yak Meadow-according to fitness, reservations and the conditions. Continue to Blue Moon Valley for its water and mountain scenery, then return to Lijiang for a free evening.

Cable-car routes and time slots are subject to reservation and availability; all three routes are not promised. Share any concerns about altitude or walking before planning.

Proposed overnight: Lijiang

6

Lijiang

A final old-town pause, then departure

Traditional entrance gate to Shuhe Old Town in Lijiang

Use any free time before your connection for a café, souvenirs or a short visit to Shuhe or Baisha. Transfer to Lijiang airport or railway station at the agreed time. A return to Kunming or onward travel to another city can be arranged separately if required.

The final sightseeing depends on your departure time. Allow a realistic transfer buffer; transport tickets and onward journeys are not automatically included.

Proposed overnight: No overnight stay

Clear arrangements, before you book

To agree in your quotation

- Itinerary planning and trip assistance for the agreed private route.

- Local vehicle and airport or station transfers only as itemized in the individual quotation.

- Driver-guide or licensed-guide arrangements in the language agreed before booking; an English-speaking guide is not automatically included.

- Entrance tickets, scenic shuttles, cable cars and reservation assistance only where expressly listed as included.

- Advice on overnight locations, road stages and practical timing; final arrangements are confirmed individually.

Separately priced or excluded

- International and domestic flights or rail tickets to, from or within Yunnan, unless separately itemized.

- Hotel accommodation unless expressly included in your quotation; the planned nights do not imply prepaid hotels.

- Personal purchases, additional meals, drinks, tips and any optional activity not listed as included.

- Personal travel insurance, single-room supplements and unconfirmed upgrades or additional nights.

- Extra costs caused by weather, road closures, scenic restrictions, itinerary changes or personal circumstances, subject to the agreed booking terms.

The final written proposal is the complete service list. Availability and any applicable local charges are confirmed before booking.

A few useful answers

Is this a private tour?

This is a suggested private itinerary for your own party. Dates, pace, vehicle, guiding language, hotels, tickets, meals and price are agreed in an individual written proposal.

Are hotels and meals included?

5 overnight stays are planned. Hotel accommodation is not automatically included; the quotation states the properties, rooms and meals being booked. No fixed number of meals is promised.

Which vehicle and guide will we have?

Vehicle choice follows your party size, luggage and budget. Gallery images are examples, not guaranteed models or local hotels. Guiding language and service scope must be agreed; an English webpage does not imply an English-speaking guide is included.

Are tickets and local transport covered?

Only the entrance tickets, cable cars, scenic shuttles and activities specifically itemized in your quotation are included. Entry slots, local services and optional experiences depend on availability.

A few useful answers

Can I change the route or slow it down?

Yes. Tell us your interests and walking preferences. Fewer stops, longer stays or extra nights can be proposed, with any changes to services and price confirmed before booking.

How do arrival and departure work?

Send your flight or train details before purchasing tickets. We agree transfers and realistic connection buffers around the route. Onward tickets and extra nights are separately arranged unless explicitly included.

Can you guarantee the Jade Dragon cable car?

No. The selected cable-car route and time slot depend on reservations, weather, operating conditions and your suitability for altitude. We discuss an alternative mountain visit before confirming the plan.

Let’s make it your journey.
